THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.

The long continued difficulties which the Government of the Sandwich Islands has had with the French, has led to the agitation among the Islanders of the question of annexation to the United States. An agent from the Sandwich Islands is very shortly expected at Washington city, if not already there, who, it is understood, will ask the Government to accept the protectorate of the Islands, and in the event of this not being done, to make a formal cession of them to the United States, upon the condition that they be accepted as a territory, and that a form of Government similar to that of other territories of the U. S. be given them. The present King and his Ministers, a majority of whom are from the United States, it is said, very earnestly press

A large and stendily increasing portion of the population of these Islands is American, which fact in connection with their importance to our maritime and commercial interests, it is thought will secure a favorable hearing on the part of our Government. Prior to the annexation of California, nearly three quarters of all the shipping stopping there was American, and since then the number of our vessels trading thither has greatly increased.

Whatever may be the result of the present negotiation, we regard it as inevitable that our Government is destined, ultimately, to sustain some other than her present relation toward the Islands contiguous to the American continent. If they are not annexed, and thus made integrel parts of the great whole, our commercial intercourse with them will, before a quarter of a century, have become too important to admit of the disturbances which it would any time be liable to by the policy of Great Britain or any of the Governments of Continental Europe. Annexation, then, or some kind of guardianship, or some satisfactory treaty stipulations with European Governments whereby their security for all time to come shall be guaranteed, must sooner or later be brought about.

As regards the Continent itself, the extension of the Government of the United States over the whole of it is merely a question of time. It is no less a law of politics than of physics that the larger body attracts toward it the smaller. An "Ocean bound Republic" is sure of realization. To the Anglo-American has been assigned this mission, and he is sure to fulfill it. The only danger to be apprehended is, that he will grow impatient of the tardiness of Providential movements, and strive to anticipate, by his own unaided act, what he can best effect by co-operating with a higher power. Perhaps the conquest of California and New Mexico was, in this sense premature. It is the order of Nature that fruit shall remain on the parent stem until the process of ripening is fully perfected. They who pluck and eat sooner may expect not only their "teeth to be set on edge," but their stom-achs will be unfitted, for a while, for wholesome food. We are not sure but this is our condition now. The spasmodic, ill-advised attempts upon Cuba, and later upon Sonora, look very much like it. What our "go-ahead" people need now more than anything else, is patience-patience to await those Providential movements, which, if properly taken advantage of when they occur, will result in the greatest good to the whole country, and the highest glory of our Government. SAD DEATH .-- Wm. H. Brown, the Senator from the Queens (L. I.) District N. Y., died at Albany on the 4th inst. He had previously been thrown from his carriage, and by too close an attendance on his Senatorial duties, fever and congestion of the brain ensued, which produced his death so unexpectedly that none of his family were able to be around his death bed. Mr. Brown was still a young man and was most looks deeply esteemed. He was the possessor of an well. ample fortune, and surrounded by every thing to render life desirable. As a prominent and tering. influential member of the democratic party, he had the prospect of future years of honor and usefulness. His loss will be severely felt-as a citizen, a man and a friend-by all who came within the circle of his acquaintance,

JENNY LIND will be at Buffalo on the 15th and will doubtless extend her tour to Detroit, Chi-cago and Milwaukee, if sufficient inducements are offered. The splendid orchestra which accompanied Jenny Lind on her tour under the auspices of Barnum, has been discharged. The only members of her present troupe are Bene-dict, Belletti, Salvi, Joseph Burke, and Otto Goldsmith, the pianist. Her expenses being thus materially reduced, she can afford to sing to smaller houses, and at lower prices; so that most of the larger places of the West will have the pleasure of hearing her.

ACCIDENT ON THE MICHIGAN CENTRAL RAIL-ROAD,-On the 14th inst., the train from Detroit was thrown from the track when about 6 miles this side of Niles, by running over a horse. The locomotive and tender, baggage car and two second class passenger cars were precipita-ted into a deep ditch. The locomotive was more than half buried in mud and water. A fireman was very seriously injured, and some of the passengers were considerably bruised. The train from Detroit on Tuesday was delayed an hour or two by having to change at the point where the accident occurred. [Chicago Jour.

A letter from San Francisco says that great mortality attends the laborers engaged on the Railroad from Chagres to Gorgona. Of one company of two hundred who went from Wisconsin, Missouri and other Western States, 75 returned home disabled, 65, died on the Isthmus, and 60 went to California, most of them with broken constitutions and totally unfit for a life in California. The following extracts which we take from late exchanges, will give some idea of the condition of the crops in many of our Eastern and Southern States:

Iowa.—We rejoice to say, that from present indications, the crops in this and the adjoining counties, promise a tolerably good yield, much better than was anticipated a few weeks since, provided the weather keeps dry, and as favorable as it has been for a few days past. If how-ever, much rain should fall, the wheat crop will almost be an entire failure. It looks fine now. There will be about two-thirds of a corn crop. [Muscatine Journal.

INDIANA.—The wheat crop in this vicinity, is nearly all harvested. The yield is very large better than it has been for several years past. Corn, oats and hay promise most abundant Vincennes Gazette.

Оню.—The signs of an abundant harvest in this section of Ohio were never more cheering than at this time. The hay crop must be very large. Wheat looks remarkably well, and will doubtless afford a large crop. Oats are very promising. The weather has been rather chil-ly for corn, but much has been planted, and as it rarely fails, we may safely calculate on a large [Painsville Telegraph.

MICHIGAN .- From all parts of the State we have the most flattering reports as to the coming crops. The present season bids fair to be one of the most prosperous to our farmers ever known in the history of our State.

The coming wheat crop here promises to surpass that of any other State.

[Detroit Free Press. KENTUCKY .- The wheat crop in this county is said to be better than an average one.— The grain is not quite so heavy, but it has been harvested in good condition; no rust, or any of the various ills, that this crop is heir to, affected [Hopkinsville, Ky. Whig. the new crop.

ARKANSAS .- The Fort Smith Herald, of the 13th, says: We learn from a gentleman, who lives in Benton county, that the crops in that county and the adjoining county, of the Chero-kee, are very fine, and promise a very rich harvest. The wheat crop he says, is the best he has ever seen in his life.

PENNSYLVANIA .- It is universally conceded that there never was a better promise of an abundant harvest than is now presented.

[Washington Examiner. MARYLAND .- The accounts from all sections of Maryland concur in the opinion that the present wheat crop of Maryland will be among the largest and best ever gathered within its limits. The season has been extremely favorable for wheat and grass, and the process of securing both, is now going on industriously throughout [Baltimore American. the State.

MISSOURI .- We met with an acquaintance yes terday from Miami, in Saline county, who informed us that he has never known the prospects for crops so gloomy. Corn, wheat, and hemp are all in bad condition.

[Lexington (Mo.) Chronicle. The most intelligent traders report a prospect of not more than one-fourth crop of hemp. [Mo. Rep. 2d.

South Carolina .- We learn through a friend ust returned from the back country, that cotton s, in many parts, in a flourishing condition .-The wheat crop has also been highly prolific.-Corn and oats, however, are in a deplorable state, and planters have been compelled to substitute wheat for corn and cats, in feeding their horses and cattle. [Columbia, S. C. Rep.

The wheat crop throughout the State of Georgia is said to be unusually good; but the corn has suffered greatly.

In Louisiana, the corn erop is much damaged The sugar crop looks well, and is improving since the late rains, very fast. The cotton crop looks dubious and it is feared will not turn out

THANKSGIVING DAY .-- An effort is being made by Governor Wood, of Ohio, in pursuance of a joint resolution of the Ohio Legislature, to have, a uniform day for Thanksgiving and Prayer, in all the States of the Union, and he has corresponded with the Executives of the several States on the subject. The day selected will most probably be the last Thursday in November. This is right, and we hope all the States of the Union will adopt the suggestion.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The Republic says: Mr. Chas. W. Daws, Secretary of the late Mexican Claim Board, says in a letter to the Intelligencer that if a forgery has been perpetrated upon the Commissioners, that any jury in the country, backed by the same evidence and certificates of character, would have been deceived and have given a large amount of damage in favor of the claimant.

The accused is now in Europe, according to the intelligence, and the assertion that he had received only a portion of the claim is incorrect.

Pittsburgh July 7, 1851.-This forenoon, a number of factory girls in Alleghany City pro-ceeded to the Hope Cotton Factory, for the purpose of enforcing the ten hour law. They attempted to get the Hope girls to join them, but failed. They succeeded, however, in tearing down a portion of the fences enclosing the factory. The Alleghany police came on the ground and shortly dispersed them.

CORNS .- The latest remedy .- A more effectve remedy than that recommended by Chambers' Journal, for these troublesome nuisances, is natural turpentine, which exudes from the pine tree. It should be spread thickly upon a rag, and kept upon the corn for five or six days .-The cure is more certain than oil.

NEW GOODS.

WE have just received from New York a large and well selected stock of Dry Goods and Groceries, which we will sell cheaper than any other store in Ottawa county; we will exchange for all kinds of lumber, shingles, bolts, saw logs, staves, ship knees, wagon spokes, hoop poles, and for all kinds of produce. Those wishing to make good trades please give us a call, we are on hand from a yard of tape to a steam saw mill. S. C. HOPKINS & BROTHERS. Mill Point, June 21 1851.
